

1872, ch. 36, sec. 31.

47. When any inspector shall bring his own tobacco to the warehouse whereof he is inspector, the same shall not be inspected unless done by the inspector of some other warehouse.

1864, ch. 346, sec. 41. 1870, ch. 291. 1888, ch. 156.

48. It shall and may be lawful for any grower or owner of tobacco grown in this State to sell the same either in the State or out of it, in hogsheads of any size or weight, or in boxes, or in any other kind or style of package, without being compelled to have the same inspected by the State inspectors, and without being compelled to place the same in the State warehouses for any purpose, whatsoever, or to pay any charge for outage, storage, or any other charge thereon, to the State or any of its constituted officers.

1888, ch. 156, sec. 3.

49. If any grower or owner of tobacco grown in this State shall desire to store such tobacco in any of the State tobacco warehouses, without having the same inspected by the State inspectors, and without the same being subject to the laws relating to inspections of tobacco, he may do so upon paying storage therefor at the rate of twenty-five cents per hogshead per month, or fractional part of a month, for the first two months that said tobacco shall remain in said warehouses, and fifteen cents per month or fractional part of a month for every succeeding month that said tobacco shall remain in said warehouses; but no charge for outage shall be made upon said tobacco, and all money received from said storage shall be credited to the warehouse receipts of the warehouse in which said tobacco shall be stored, but no tobacco stored in said warehouses under the provisions of this section shall be inspected in said warehouses by any private inspector; and the said tobacco may at any time be removed from said warehouse by the owner upon payment of the storage in the same manner as if said warehouse was a private warehouse.

1872, ch. 36, sec. 32.

50. The comptroller, librarian, or other proper officer, shall furnish each tobacco inspector with a bound copy of so much of this article as relates to the inspection of tobacco, for his office use, the cost of the same to be paid out of the tobacco fund.
