

admit the hand, and without in any manner looking into said box, one by one, forty-eight of said ballots; and the names appearing on said ballots as drawn shall be duly recorded by said judges, or by the clerk in their presence and under their direction in the order in which they shall be drawn; and in Baltimore county a box shall be procured as aforesaid of the form aforesaid, and of sufficient size; and said box shall be divided into thirteen compartments, which shall be numbered to correspond with the district of the said county; and the names of the persons selected as aforesaid, shall be placed by the said judges in the said compartments of the said box, respectively, which bears the numbers of the districts where the persons so selected respectively reside, and there shall be them drawn in the manner hereinbefore provided for the other counties, five names from compartments number one, three from number two, five from number three, three from number four, two from number five, three from number six, three from number seven, five from number eight, six from number nine, two from number ten, three from number eleven, six from number twelve, and two from number thirteen; and in Frederick county, a box of the form aforesaid, shall be procured as aforesaid, and of convenient size, and said box shall be divided into as many compartments as there may be election districts in said county, which shall be numbered to correspond with the districts of the said county; and the names of the persons selected as aforesaid shall be placed by the said judges in the said compartments of said box, respectively, which bear the numbers of the districts where the persons so selected respectively reside; and it shall be the duty of the judges of the circuit court for Frederick county when selecting the panel of two hundred persons, as provided for in the preceding section of this article, to select twenty of said names from election district number two and the remaining one hundred and eighty names from the remaining election districts of said county, equally; and there shall then be drawn, in the manner hereinbefore provided for the other counties, two names from each of the compartments aforesaid, except the compartment representing the second election district of said county; and after two names shall have been drawn from each of the other compartments aforesaid, then the remaining number of names necessary to make up the full number of forty-eight, as afore-