

1886, ch. 460.

52. It shall not be necessary for non-resident traveling salesmen, or sample merchants, or the representative of foreign mercantile or manufacturing firms or corporations, as such, to take out a license in order to make sales to licensed merchants or solicit orders from licensed merchants in this State.

1868, ch. 238.

53. Any trader who has taken out license to sell goods, chattels, wares, merchandise, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, in this State, shall have the privilege to sell out said license to any party purchasing his stock of goods and purchasing or renting his place of business; and the party so purchasing may continue to sell under the license of his predecessor in business until the expiration of said license.

1870, ch. 353.

54. When any trader shall sell and dispose of his goods, wares and merchandise, and at the same time shall sell his license to the person or persons purchasing said goods, wares and merchandise, the purchase and transfer of said license shall be entered by the clerk of the court where such license was obtained; and the clerk's fee for said service shall be fifty cents.

Spirituous or Fermented Liquors by Retailers.

P. G. L., (1860,) art 58, sec 58. 1858, ch 414, sec 4.

55. When any person or corporation intends to sell or barter spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer, in quantities not less than a pint, he shall apply to the clerk for a license therefor.

State v Cahen, 35 Md 236.

Ibid. sec. 59. 1858, ch. 414, sec. 4.

56. Upon such application the applicant shall state on oath, to be administered by the clerk, the amount of his stock of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, generally kept on hand by him or the concern in which he is engaged, or if said applicant shall not have been previously engaged in such trade or business, the amount of such stock he expects to keep.
