

P. G. L., (1860) art 56, sec. 69. 1858, ch 414, sec 4. 1860, ch. 325, sec. 11.

66. No license shall be granted to sell spirituous and fermented liquors or lager beer, in quantities not less than a pint, for the sum of eighteen dollars, unless the person applying therefor shall also obtain a license to sell goods, chattels, wares and merchandise, paying therefor the sum hereinbefore prescribed, according to the amount of his stock in trade.

Ordinary Keeper.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 56, sec. 70. 1862, ch. 119.

67. If any person or body politic shall propose to open or keep an ordinary, he shall apply to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which said applicant may reside; or, if he reside in the city of Baltimore, to the clerk of the court of common pleas, for a license therefor; under which license spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer, may be bartered or sold in quantities less than a pint.

Ibid. sec. 71. 1858, ch. 414, sec. 5.

68. The said licenses shall be granted on the following terms: The applicant shall be recommended to the clerk by two respectable freeholders of his immediate vicinity, and shall make oath, to be by the said clerk administered, that he has bona fide, and without intending to evade the requirements of this article, provided and expects to maintain six good beds, with sufficient covering therefor, and three rooms more than sufficient for the private uses of said ordinary keeper, with stabling and provender for five horses at least; and, if said applicant resides in the city of Baltimore, that he has provided and expects to maintain twelve good beds, with covering as aforesaid, and six rooms.

Cohen v. Jarrett, 42 Md 271.

Ibid. sec. 72 1858, ch 414, sec. 5.

69. The said applicant shall also state to the clerk on oath, to be by him administered, the rate of rent or annual value of the house or place at or in which the business to be authorized by the license may be done, or is intended to be done.
