

carry out and enforce the provisions of such orders and regulations; to prescribe regulations for the destruction of animals affected with or exposed to an infectious or contagious disease, and for the proper destruction of their hides and carcasses, and all objects which might carry infection or contagion; to prescribe regulations for the disinfection of all buildings, premises and railway cars, and of all objects from which or by which infection or contagion might take place or be conveyed; to alter and modify from time to time, as he may deem expedient, the terms of all such orders and regulations, and to cancel or withdraw the same at any time; and it shall be the duty of all sheriffs and deputy sheriffs, constables, policemen or other officers of the State, city of Baltimore or counties, to obey and observe all orders and instructions which they may receive from said veterinary inspector, in the enforcement of the provisions of this article within their respective jurisdictions.

1888, ch. 519, sec 6.

6. Any person who shall violate or transgress the terms or requirements of any order or regulation issued and prescribed by the said veterinary inspector with the consent of the said live stock sanitary board, under the authority of this article, or shall refuse to said veterinary inspector or his assistants, access to his premises, farms, stables, cars, sheds or pens, or shall resist said inspector or his assistants in applying any of the quarantine orders or regulations, or shall conceal the fact that contagious or infectious disease exists on his premises, shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred nor less than fifty dollars, which fine may be imposed by any justice of the peace of the city of Baltimore or any county where such offence may be committed.

Ibid. sec. 7.

7. It shall be the duty of all persons practising veterinary medicine in this State to report immediately to said board all cases of contagious or infectious disease among live stock, which may come to their knowledge; and a failure to so report for forty-eight hours after they shall come into such knowledge shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, they shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence.
