

1870, ch. 426, sec. 4.

7. The words "commercial manures, artificially manufactured or manipulated fertilizers," shall be taken and construed to include all manures and fertilizers which shall be sold for a greater price than one cent per pound; and any arrangement or agreement, verbal or written, made by and between any seller and purchaser of said manures or fertilizers, for the purpose of exonerating the seller or manufacturer from liability for a violation of any of the provisions of this article, shall not exempt such seller, manufacturer, compounder, preparer or furnisher of said manures or fertilizers from indictment and fine as is hereinbefore provided for. Nothing in the provisions of this article shall prevent the buyer and seller from making contracts in reference to the price to be paid or the quality of the fertilizer contracted for.

Ibid. sec. 5.

8. By the term soluble phosphoric acid, whenever used in this article, is meant phosphoric acid in any form or combination readily soluble in pure cold water; and by the term insoluble phosphoric acid is meant phosphoric acid in any form or combination which requires the action of an acid upon it to cause it to become readily soluble in pure cold water.

Ibid. sec. 6.

9. Any manufacturer, dealer, agent or other person who shall adulterate, add to or take anything from any commercial manures or artificially manufactured or manipulated fertilizers, labeled in accordance with the provisions of this article, or who shall use the brand or trade mark of any manufacturer or dealer other than his own, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof in any court having jurisdiction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in jail not exceeding six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court before whom he shall be tried.