Ibid. sec. 20. 1845, ch. 287, sec. 2.

20. Where a claim is filed by a contractor or builder who is indebted for work done or materials furnished at his request or on his account, the persons to whom he may be indebted shall have the benefit of such lien, and may, by petition, claim to be paid the amount due them by such contractor or builder out of the moneys to be received for such claim or lien; and the same shall be apportioned in such manner and form and by such proceedings as shall be equitable and just.

Ibid. sec. 21. 1838, ch. 205, sec. 12.

21. In every case in which one claim for materials shall be filed by the person preferring the same against two or more buildings owned by the same person, the person filing such joint claim shall at the same time designate the amount he claims to be due him on each of said buildings, otherwise such claim shall be postponed to other lien creditors; and the lien of such claimant shall not extend beyond the amount so designated, as against other creditors having liens by judgment, mortgage or otherwise.
