Blocher v. Worthington, 10 Md. 1. Everett v. Avery, 19 Md 136.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 61, sec. 89. 1838, ch. 205, sec. 24.

39. In every case in which the amount of any such lien shall be paid, or otherwise satisfied, the claimant or his legal representative, at the request of the owner of the building, or of any other person interested therein, and on payment of the costs, shall enter satisfaction on the record of such claim in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county, or superior court of Baltimore city, as the case may be, which shall forever discharge and release the same.

Ibid. sec 40. 1838, ch. 205, sec. 25.

40. If any person who shall have received satisfaction for such claim, shall neglect or refuse to enter satisfaction therefor within sixty days after request and payment of the costs of suit, he shall forfeit and pay to the party aggrieved any sum not exceeding one-half of the amount of such claim, to be recovered in the same manner as debts of a like amount are recoverable.

Ibid. sec. 41. 1845, ch. 287, sec. 1.

41. This article shall be construed and have the same effect as laws which give general jurisdiction, or are remedial in their nature; and such amendments shall, from time to time and at any time be made in the proceedings, commencing with the claim or lien to be filed and extending to all subsequent proceedings, as may be necessary and proper; provided, that the amount of the claim or lien filed shall not in any case be enlarged.
