

ARTICLE LXV.

MILITIA.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Of whom it shall consist, lists
2 Calling out
3 Rules and regulations
4 Enrollment and organization to continue
5 Organization of volunteer company.
6 Staff
7 Duties of adjutant general.
8 Other staff officers
9 Election and appointment of officers
10 Commissions to be issued by governor.
11. By-laws.
12. Rules and regulations in regard to distribution of arms and accoutrements.
13. Equipment by the State, commanding officer's bond.
14. Officer responsible for property received by him
15 Detention of property ordered to be deposited in the armory, penalty
16 Destruction of military property; penalty
17 Sale, disposal, or purchase of military property of State; penalty.
18 Return of equipments upon disbanding
19 Revocation of commission, boards of officers.
20. Pay and commutation of rations when in service.
21 Rental of armories.
22. Certificates of membership, honorary membership. | 23 Oath.
24 Certificate of oath.
25 When out at call of police board or sheriff.
Maryland National Guard.
26 Formation.
27. Distribution, consolidation of companies, command, headquarters.
28. Men composing force; oath; enlistment; discharge, re-enlistment
29 Status of the force; discipline.
30. Penalties
31. Court-martial, fines.
32 Inspection, law parade.
33. Encampment.
34. Uniform.
35. Pay during encampment; unexpended appropriation.
36. Exemption from jury duty after service for full period.
37. Application of appropriation for militia
38 Officers to receive appropriations and report expenditures.
39. Bond to perform this duty.
40. Failure to report.
41 Mustering out of inefficient companies.
42. Adjutant general to keep separate accounts with each organization, report to general assembly, publication.
43. Examination into competency of officers.
44 Courts martial, how to be ordered and organized |
|--|---|

P. G. L. (1860,) art. 68. 1867, ch. 397. 1868, ch. 414. 1870, ch. 182, sec. 1.

1. The militia of this State shall consist of all able-bodied white male citizens, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five