

ditions of paying the same to the collectors as specified in the preceding section, with the proviso that his payments shall in each case be made not later than five days prior to the respective dates for payment within which allowance and rebate are as aforesaid to be made in favor of the collectors; and the county treasurer is to be allowed the same deductions on all sums accounted for by him to the State treasury by the first day of October, November and December, respectively, of the year for which the levy is made, and also on all sums duly accounted for to the county commissioners according to law.

1878, ch. 160.

115. The county commissioners shall annually levy upon said county a commission of not more than five per cent. on the amount of State and county taxes, to be placed in the hands of said collectors for collection; said commissions to be levied for the use of said collectors, respectively, and to be collected as other charges are collected; but in his settlement with said county treasurer, each collector shall only be allowed to retain his commissions on the amount of State and county taxes actually collected by him and paid over to said treasurer.

Ibid.

116. If any collector shall fail to pay over to the treasurer of said county the amount of money which may or should be in his hands for the use of the State or county by the first day of April specified for payment in section 112, the treasurer may in his discretion order a suit upon his bond, and upon the failure of any collector to pay over as aforesaid by the first day of December, as specified in said section 112, and settle in full with the treasurer, the latter shall order a suit on his bond, not later than the first day of January following; and said collectors shall in all cases be charged with legal interest on all sums of money not collected and paid over by them by the first day of January succeeding the date of the levy from and after that day, and shall pay over all interest received by them.

Ibid.

117. When the county treasurer shall order suit upon a collector's bond he shall transmit to the State's attorney, or some
