

or shooting any muskrats, otters or minks without the permission of the owner of said lands or marshes, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the circuit court for said county, shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or until the payment of said fine and costs; one-half of said fine to be paid to the county commissioners, for the use of the public schools of the county, and the other half to the informer.

JAIL.

1884, ch. 332.

191. The county commissioners, every two years, shall appoint a non-partisan board of five discreet male persons, voters and residents of the town of Cambridge, to act as jail supervisors; the said jail supervisors shall serve without compensation, for the term of two years, and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified; they shall have supervision and control of the jail and adjoining grounds, with the right of visiting and inspecting the same at any and all times, subject to the review and ratification of the commissioners; they shall pass and enforce all necessary rules for the protection of the health, cleanliness and comfort of the inmates, and for the regulation of all matters connected with the general management of said jail.

JURORS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 10, sec. 120.

192. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as they shall deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be annually incurred by the attendance of jurors at the circuit court for Dorchester county.

Ibid. sec. 121.

193. The sums so levied shall be collected by the collectors of Dorchester county, as other county charges.

Ibid. sec. 123.

194. A certificate signed by the clerk of the circuit court, expressing the number of days any juror may have attended said
