

once enter judgment for its penalty; if the justice issuing the writ shall die, resign or otherwise be unable to try any such cause pending before him, the papers shall be taken to another justice, to be designated by the State's attorney, and he shall hear and determine the same; and the order of the State's attorney, made in writing, for the removal of the papers, shall suffice to give the new justice jurisdiction to try the cause, and shall not be open to question; the State's attorney shall be entitled to an appearance fee of five dollars for every case, when he appears before a justice under this sub-title of this article, and on conviction of the defendant, such fee shall be taxed by the justice as a part of the costs adjudged to be paid by him under an appeal; and the defendant shall be entitled to a trial by jury.

1886, ch. 41.

213. If any person, firm, company, club or body corporate shall in the first, second, third, fourth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth election districts, sell or otherwise barter, dispose of, directly or indirectly, or take orders for the same to be delivered in future, any spirituous or fermented or other intoxicating liquors or medicated bitters producing intoxication, or any compound of which alcohol forms the chief or principal ingredient as aforesaid, and except as aforesaid, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the house of correction not less than three months nor more than six months, in the discretion of the court, for each and every offence; and the person in possession of the premises, house or place, at the time the violation occurred, shall be deemed prima facie guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be subject to the same fines and penalties as the actual violator.

1882, ch. 296.

214. The several sections of this sub-title of this article shall, from time to time, be given in charge by the circuit court, and their several provisions carefully explained to the grand jury of the county.