

road shall constitute the bounding lines between the said counties of Dorchester and Caroline in place of the present road.

SHEEP.

1876, ch. 315.

281. Dorchester, Caroline, Cecil, Howard, Wicomico and Worcester counties are exempted from the provisions of sections 1 and 2 of article 86 of the code of public general laws, title "Sheep."

SHERIFF.

1878, ch. 321.

282. The sheriff of Dorchester county shall not be entitled to receive more than thirty cents a day for keeping and boarding each prisoner; and the county commissioners shall make quarterly settlements with the sheriff, who shall present an itemized account, and shall give him an order on the county treasurer for all monies found to be due him for the board and keeping of the prisoners to date.

Ibid.

283. The commissioners shall annually levy for the use of the sheriff of the county the sum of thirty dollars for the first, and ten dollars for each subsequent prisoner who may be convicted at any term of the circuit court during the current year, in payment for the trouble and expenses incurred by the sheriff in transferring such prisoners to the penitentiary or house of correction.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 10, sec. 211.

284. He shall receive on executions issued by any justice of the peace the same fees allowed by law to constables.

SLAUGHTER CREEK BRIDGE.

1866, ch. 22.

285. The county commissioners are empowered and authorized to regulate the travel over Slaughter Creek bridge; to bring action at law to recover damages against any person who may injure said bridge by violent or careless driving, by making fast thereto vessels or scows, or damaging the said bridge in any manner whatsoever; the damage so recovered to be paid to the county treasurer.