

328. If inquisition set aside, court may direct another to issue, what inquisition to contain.
329. Taxes, limit to rate of taxation, assessment, taxable limits of village.
330. Appeal to board of commissioners by persons aggrieved by the assessment.
331. What additional ordinances commissioners authorized to pass.
332. May contract with Mechanics-town water company
333. May pass ordinances for grading and paving of streets, lanes and alleys, may prevent horses and vehicles from passing over footways, may tax any part of village for paving streets in such part.
334. May require sidewalks and gutters to be graded and paved, cost of, by whom to be paid.
335. Publication of ordinances of commissioners.
336. Exemption of plant from taxation
337. Commissioners may grant railroads privilege of using streets in.
338. Officers necessary to carry into effect ordinances; appointment of town bailiff; powers and duties of.
339. Bond of bailiff.
340. Power of, to enforce payment of corporation taxes.
341. Oath of president of commissioners and all other officers
342. President, jurisdiction and powers of.
343. Tax to aid in keeping streets in good repair.
344. President and commissioners to remain in office until successors elected.
345. Commissioners may impose and appropriate fines, penalties and forfeitures for breach of ordinances
346. Sheriff to receive all persons committed to jail for breach of ordinances.
347. Fines, how to be collected.
348. Fines, fees and costs to go to corporation, and be by it appropriated.
349. Persons, when convicted, refusing to pay fine, to be committed to jail, commitment not to exceed thirty days.
350. Appeals from decisions of president of commissioners, what bond to be given by appellant.

Middletown.

351. Citizens of, are a body corporate, by name of "The Burgess and Commissioners of Middletown," general powers of.
352. Limits of.
353. Qualification of voters in; election of burgess and five commissioners, when to be held.
354. Elections to be held as directed by the by-laws of corporation.
355. Oath of burgess and commissioners.
356. Any commissioner failing to take such oath within ten days after elected, office to be declared vacant, and new election to be held to fill such vacancy.
357. New election, how to be called.
358. Meetings of burgess and commissioners, clerk, appointment of.
359. Clerk, duties of, ordinances to be posted in public places of town.
360. Burgess to have powers of justices of the peace.
361. By-laws and ordinances may be passed for what purposes.