

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec 39.

63. Any person who shall be found playing at long bullets in Creagerstown, or within half a mile of said town, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five dollars, to be recovered in the name of the State, before a justice of the peace for the county, one-half to the informer and the other half to the county.

CIRCUIT COURT.

1889, ch. 214.

64. The circuit court for Frederick county shall hold four terms of court for common law proceedings, commencing, respectively, on the first Monday in February, on the second Monday of May, on the third Monday of September, and on the second Monday of December, in each and every year, to which terms in February and September, both grand and petit jurors shall be summoned, and to which December term petit jurors only shall be summoned, and to which May term no jurors shall be summoned; the trial term of said court for the cases depending therein upon issues of facts, to be tried by a jury, shall be the term to which jurors shall be summoned next succeeding the terms to which original process may be returnable; and the drawing of jurors for the jury terms aforesaid shall be in all respects as now prescribed by law, except that for the December term aforesaid; and not less than fifteen days before the same, there shall be drawn from the names remaining in the box, from which the jury for the preceding September term was drawn, twenty-five names, which shall constitute the petit jurors for said December term, subject to the provisions and regulations applicable to the correction and completion of the jurors drawn from the other jury terms aforesaid.

1868, ch. 185.

65. In addition to the first day of each term of the circuit court for said county, the first Monday in January, the first Monday in March, the first Monday in April, the first Monday in July, and the third Monday in October in each year, shall be return days for the return of process in civil cases.
