

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec. 49 1862, ch. 149. 1872, ch. 179. 1878, ch. 179.
1878, ch. 250. 1884, ch. 149.

103. Frederick county is divided into twenty-one election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, as established by law.

1872, ch. 204.

104. Election district number two is divided into four precincts, with the metes and bounds established by the act of 1872, chapter 204, and the county commissioners shall appoint three judges of election for each of said precincts, who shall perform the same duties, be subject to the same obligations, and receive the same compensation as judges of election in election districts.

1888, ch. 217.

105. The county commissioners shall have power and authority to create new election districts in said county, in addition to those already established, whenever in their judgment the convenience of the voters of the county, or any part thereof, would thereby be promoted; and shall also have power to abridge or enlarge any district heretofore established or which may hereafter be established, and shall have the further power to designate the places of holding the election polls in all election districts; provided, however, that no new election district shall be created under the provisions of this section unless on petition of at least one hundred and fifty of the duly qualified and registered voters residing within the proposed new election district, and by the same publication over the names of at least ten of the said petitioners, and the same procedure that is now required in the matter of opening and closing public roads in Frederick county; and provided further, that no new election district shall be so created from a part or parts of then existing district or districts when the registered vote of said district or districts shall be less in number than three hundred; and provided further, that no new election district shall be created under the provisions of this section unless the proposed new election district shall contain at least three hundred duly qualified and registered voters.
