

peace shall not be stayed, unless the party appealing shall give bond to the State for double the amount of the fine imposed, with security approved by the justice rendering the judgment, with condition to prosecute his appeal with effect, or to pay the fine imposed, with all costs.

1882, ch. 468.

150. It shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch or destroy any fish in any manner during the month of May in the waters of Frederick county; provided, that the Potomac river shall be exempted from the provisions of this section.

Ibid.

151. Any person violating the preceding section shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of said county, be liable to a fine of not less than five nor more than ten dollars for each offence; and upon failure to pay such fine and costs of prosecution, shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ten days; said fine to be paid, one-half to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners for the use of the county; provided, however, that any person so convicted shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court for the county.

1886, ch. 187.

152. Frederick and Montgomery counties are exempted from the operation of sections 40-46 of article 39 of the code of public general laws, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Potomac;" provided, that such exemption shall not apply to "sledging" or killing fish with poison or drug, or by the explosion of powder or other substance, or to the provisions of sections 42, 43, 44 and 45 of said article, relating to fishways.

FREDERICK.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec. 81. 1878, ch. 464.

153. The citizens of Frederick are a body corporate, by the name of "The Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick," and as such