

stated, than that in which the voter actually resides, and in and for which he is registered, and the qualified voters of each aldermanic district, shall at the polls in their respective districts, vote for an alderman; one alderman shall be chosen from each of the five aldermanic districts, and shall be voted for at the polls for said district, by the qualified voters of such district, and none other; the elections shall be held at such place in each of such districts as the judges of election of the district may prescribe, and the polls shall be kept open from nine o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec. 86.

158. No person shall be mayor of the city unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States, above the age of twenty-one years, a freeholder in the city, within the taxable limits thereof, actually residing therein, and having resided therein for three years next preceding his election.

1872, ch. 348.

159. No person shall be alderman of the city unless he shall be at the time of his election a citizen of the United States, above the age of twenty-one years, and shall have been at the time of his election a resident of the city one year, and a resident of the aldermanic district for which he is elected, for six months next preceding his election, and shall be assessed on the tax books of the city to the amount of three hundred dollars.

160. The governor shall annually, before the tenth day of December, appoint one person as officer of registration in each aldermanic district of Frederick city, who shall be a resident of the district for which he is appointed; and the said officer of registration shall register in a book to be prepared for the purpose, all male citizens above the age of twenty-one years, who shall have the requisite qualifications to entitle them to vote for mayor and aldermen. Every male person who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided within the State of Maryland for twelve months, and in the aldermanic district wherein he offers to register, six months next preceding the elec-
