

Frederick city, or to vote at any election thereafter held for mayor or aldermen, or held by or under the municipal authority of Frederick city for any other purpose.

1872, ch. 348.

162. Each of said officers of registration, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall qualify before the clerk of the circuit court for the county, by taking and subscribing the oath prescribed in the sixth section of the first article of the constitution.

Ibid.

163. The register of the city of Frederick shall have a book of registration prepared for the officer of registration for each of said wards, and the said book shall be so ruled or printed as to enable him to designate by the street, lane or alley, or other local description, the residence of every person who shall register and be entitled to vote in the said ward for mayor, aldermen, or for any other purpose, at any election held by or under the municipal authority of Frederick city; and after advertisement inserted once a week for two weeks in at least one newspaper published in Frederick city, and by hand-bills, or such other notice as he may deem proper, of his intention so to do, he shall proceed, at some convenient place in his ward, to be designated in his said advertisement, at the hour of nine o'clock in the morning on the third Monday of January, and annually thereafter, to open said book of registration, and the same keep open until five o'clock in the afternoon of said day, for the purpose of registering all the qualified voters of his said ward who shall be entitled under the provisions of this sub-title of this article to be registered and to vote at any municipal election held thereunder, and who shall apply for registration; and he shall cause said list to be published in one newspaper published in Frederick city, and also by hand-bills posted in such public places in his ward as he may select.

Ibid.

164. For the purpose of correcting said books of registration and said lists as published by the officers of registration, respectively, they shall sit at some convenient place in their respective wards, from nine o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the
