

1880, ch. 133.

73. It is made the special duty of the judge or judges of the courts having criminal jurisdiction in said cities of Annapolis, Baltimore, Cumberland, Frederick, Hagerstown and Frostburg, to specially charge the grand juries of said courts upon the execution of the three preceding sections, and the police authorities of said cities are specially charged with the execution thereof, and to that end shall direct nightly examinations by some of their officers, of all such places.

1872, ch. 42.

74. It shall not be lawful for any person to carry concealed, in Annapolis, whether a resident thereof or not, any pistol, dirk-knife, bowie-knife, sling-shot, billy, razor, brass, iron or other metal knuckles, or any other deadly weapon, under a penalty of a fine of not less than three nor more than ten dollars in each case, in the discretion of the justice of the peace before whom the same may be tried, to be collected as other fines and penalties are now collected; provided, the provisions of this section shall not apply to any officer of the law, either of the State or city, where any pistol or other weapon is a part of the prescribed outfit of said officer; and provided further, that either party feeling aggrieved at the decision of said justice of the peace, shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court for Anne Arundel county.

BIRDS, GAME AND FOXES.

1876, ch. 309.

75. It shall not be lawful for any person not a resident of Anne Arundel county or Prince George's county, to hunt, shoot, kill, destroy or in any way trap any birds within the limits of said counties, at any season of the year, without the permission of the owner of the land or marsh upon which said non-resident may hunt.

Ibid.

76. Every person who shall be adjudged guilty of a violation of the foregoing section, before any justice of the peace of the said counties, shall be fined the sum of five dollars, and the gun-
