

with full power to issue bonds in the name of the mayor and aldermen, not to exceed fifty thousand dollars, to be signed by the mayor, and countersigned by the register, in sums not less than one hundred dollars, bearing interest, the interest payable semi-annually, payable in twenty years from the date thereof, and redeemable at any time after the expiration of five years after date, at the pleasure of the mayor and aldermen, the interest whereof shall be receivable in payment of corporation taxes.

1870. ch. 814.

251. The mayor and aldermen shall have full power to embrace within the limits of the markets, for market purposes, such sidewalks, streets, lanes and alleys, or parts of sidewalks, streets, lanes or alleys, contiguous to the market houses, as they may deem advisable; and they shall prescribe such rules and regulations for the regulation of the markets within said limits, and impose and exact and provide for collecting such rents or tolls, from persons selling within said limits, as they may from time to time consider expedient; and they may provide that no article of marketing shall be bought or sold beyond said limits during market hours.

Ibid.

252. The mayor and aldermen shall have power and authority, in their discretion, to exempt from assessment and taxation for municipal purposes the bonds issued by the mayor and aldermen, for the introduction of an additional supply of water into the city of Frederick, and authorized to be issued by the act of assembly of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, chapter eighty-seven, entitled "an act to add additional sections to article eleven of the code of public local laws of Frederick county," relating to the powers and duties of the mayor and aldermen of Frederick.

Ibid.

253. In all appeals from the mayor to the circuit court, the party appealing shall give bond with at least two sureties, who shall be approved by the mayor, in a penalty double the amount of the fine imposed, and the costs which may accrue on such appeal, which penalty shall be adjudged by the mayor, and conditioned that if the party appealing shall not prosecute such
