

1886, ch. 190.

84. It shall be the duty of the constables of the several election districts of the counties aforesaid, to arrest all persons violating any of said sections, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with as therein directed.

1876, ch. 309.

85. Any person thinking himself aggrieved by the judgment of any justice of the peace in any trial for the violation of any of the said sections, may appeal to the circuit court for the county in which said trial was had; provided, he shall give notice of said appeal within five days after the rendition of said judgment, and shall, within ten days after the rendition of such judgment, deliver to said justice an appeal bond, executed to the State of Maryland, in the penalty of fifty dollars, with surety, to be approved by said justice, and conditioned for the successful prosecution of said appeal.

Ibid.

86. All prosecutions under said sections shall be docketed in the name of the State of Maryland as plaintiff.

1882, ch. 205.

87. Any person killing any hawk, owl or fox within the limits of Anne Arundel county, shall be entitled to receive a bounty of twenty-five cents for each and every hawk and owl, and fifty cents for every fox so killed.

Ibid.

88. To obtain said bounty it shall be necessary for the person killing said hawk, owl or fox, to produce the head or heads of the same before some justice of the peace for Anne Arundel county, and at the same time make oath that the said hawk, owl or fox was killed within the limits of said county, and within thirty days before the production of said head or heads before the said justice; and thereupon the said justice shall give a certificate of the production of the said head or heads before him, and the taking of said oath; and it shall be the duty of the said justice to destroy the said head or heads, so as to prevent a second allowance upon the same.