

purpose; and the taxes so collected shall be paid over by said collector to said commissioners, to be by them expended under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, in such manner as they shall direct.

1878, ch. 90.

387. The tax collector appointed by them shall give bond in the penal sum of six hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty, and shall be vested with the same power and authority for the collection of town taxes as the collectors of State and county taxes for Frederick county are now or may hereafter be by law invested with, in respect of State or county taxes; and the said commissioners shall fix the term of office, responsibility and compensation of said tax collector of town taxes.

Ibid.

388. The commissioners, as often as they shall deem it advisable, may cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within the corporate limits of said town, by a person to be appointed and paid by them, which assessment shall not, however, exceed the assessment of the same property for county purposes; provided, that if any owner of property within said town shall feel aggrieved by the assessment so made, he may appeal to the commissioners, who are empowered to correct the valuation of his property as they may deem reasonable and just, but not to exceed the assessment for county purposes.

Ibid

389. They shall not expend, nor contract to expend, in any one year, more than the amount of money receivable from taxes and other sources for that year.

Ibid.

390. They shall have power and authority annually to appoint a bailiff, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town, and for this purpose he is invested with the same powers and authority that the constables for said county now have under the laws of this State; and he shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duty in such conditions and
