

Frederick county, and at the crossings of said railroad over the county road, in the village of Berlin, Frederick county, flagmen or signalmen, to warn persons using said roads and crossings over said railroad at said crossings, of the approach of trains upon said railroad.

1884, ch. 331.

419. The said Baltimore and Ohio railroad company shall be liable to pay a fine of one hundred dollars for each day that said company shall neglect or fail to comply with the provisions of the preceding section; one-half of said fine to go to the use of the informer and the other half to the use of the school commissioners of Frederick county, to be recovered in an action of debt in the name of the State of Maryland, before any justice of the peace for said Frederick county.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

1886, ch. 419.

420. The register of wills shall annually continue the entire general index of wills and administration and guardian accounts in his office.

Ibid.

421. If the judges of the orphans' court for said county, at any time deem it necessary to transcribe any of the indexes of records in the office of the register of wills for said county into a new book, they shall pass an order requiring the register of wills for said county to transcribe such index, which order, when passed, shall be faithfully executed by the register of wills and made in a book well bound for that purpose.

Ibid.

422. The cost of said books shall be paid by the county commissioners, and the register of wills shall be annually paid for transcribing such indexes, and for continuing said general indexes out of the surplus proceeds of his offices; and if there be no surplus, then the county commissioners shall allow him such compensation, annually, as they shall think fair and reasonable.
