

ROADS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec. 265.

423. The supervisors of roads in Frederick county shall remove such snow-drifts as may render the roads impassable for several days.

Ibid. sec. 266.

424. They shall erect and keep up at the expense of the county, at all public cross-roads, and where public roads fork, indexes or finger boards pointing to the nearest town, mill or other public places where the roads lead, with the names of such places and the distances thereto legibly inscribed thereon.

Ibid. sec. 267.

425. If any person shall wantonly deface, injure or pull down any such index or finger board, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars for each offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace in the same manner as small debts are recoverable, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the county.

1876, ch. 404.

426. The county commissioners, in appointing road supervisors, shall not appoint any one road supervisor to have control or supervision over more than ten miles of public road.

SCHOOLS.

427. The school commissioners of said county shall not expend for school purposes, or for any other purpose, a greater sum of money in any one year than shall be annually levied for school purposes by the county commissioners, in addition to the amount annually received by the school commissioners from the treasurer of the State; and they shall not borrow any sum of money in any one year in excess of their actual receipts and income for such year as provided for by law; and it shall not be lawful for the county school commissioners to contract or pay any debt in excess of the annual revenues provided by law for school purposes; nor shall the county commissioners for said county assume or pay any debt or any portion thereof, contracted in violation of the provisions of this section.
