

1886, ch 192

439. The county commissioners are authorized and required to pay to the county surveyor as salary, the annual sum of three hundred dollars, in quarterly instalments of seventy-five dollars each.

SWINE AND GEESE.

1876, ch. 150.

440. No swine or geese belonging to any inhabitant of Creagerstown shall be allowed to go at large in said town, and if either be found going at large it shall be the duty of justices of the peace, upon the information of any citizen of said town, or upon their own personal knowledge of the same, to have said swine and geese impounded, and they shall charge the owners one dollar for each swine and twenty-five cents for each goose so found at large, which charge shall be in the nature of a fine, and shall retain them until such fines are paid; all emoluments arising from said fines shall be paid to the trustees of the public schools for the school district in which said town is located, for the use of such public schools.

P. L. L., (1860.) art. 11, sec. 314.

441. Any person may kill any swine or poultry going at large in the town of New Market.

Ibid. sec. 315.

442. No inhabitant of Liberty, or inhabitant of any small lots of ground containing less than ten acres of land, lying within a quarter of a mile of said town, shall raise or keep any swine or geese within said town, or within a quarter of a mile thereof, except in enclosures; or suffer any geese or swine to go at large in said town, or within a quarter of a mile of said town; and any person may kill or impound any swine or geese so going at large; and if impounded shall immediately give notice, by advertisement set up at the most public places in the town, describing such swine or geese; and if the owner shall not, within five days from the time of giving such notice, prove his property and make compensation for any injury done to any inhabitant of said town, to be ascertained by two disinterested inhabitants thereof, and pay for every swine the sum of twenty-
