

1874, ch. 92. 1874, ch. 420.

447. The fine imposed and collected under said section 444, shall be applied one-half to the informer and the balance to the paving of streets in the village of Burkittsville or Knoxville, under the supervision of the justice of the peace by whom such fine was collected.

Ibid.

448. It shall be the duty of the constable residing in or nearest to the said village of Burkittsville, to enforce the provisions of the four preceding sections, and if in any case he fails to do so, he shall be liable to a fine of two dollars, to be recovered against him, before any justice of the peace of said county, in an action of debt in the name of the State, to the use of the informer, who shall be entitled to all of the said fine.

Ibid.

449. In any case against the said constable it shall be prima facie evidence of negligence to perform his said duty, for the informer to prove to the satisfaction of the justice of the peace that said constable knew that the law had been violated.

TAXES.

450. The county commissioners are authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to allow a discount not exceeding five per cent. upon all county taxes paid on or before the first day of September in each year after the date of their levy, and to provide in their county levy for such discount.

TRAMPS.

451. Sections 275 and 276 of article 27 of the code of public general laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Vagrants and Tramps," shall not apply to or be enforced in Frederick county.
