1878, ch. 108

1. No person shall sell at auction any goods, wares or merchandise of any kind or description whatever within the limits of Garrett county, unless he shall first pay to the clerk of the circuit court for said county the sum of sixty dollars per year for such privilege, to be applied to the use of the State, and paid into the treasury; and no such license shall be issued for a shorter period than one month.

Ibid.

2. The provisions of the preceding section shall apply only to such persons as shall bring goods, wares and merchandise into said county to sell at auction within its limits, and to such persons as shall sell at auction, goods, wares or merchandise sent into the county for the express purpose of being sold at auction therein.

Ibid.

3. Any person who shall so sell at auction, within the limits of the county, without having previously paid such license, shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars upon conviction thereof in any court of law.
