

1878, ch. 108.

4. The clerk of the circuit court shall be entitled to the same fees and commissions for issuing the license and paying into the treasury the money therefor, as for other licenses under the laws of this State.

1882, ch. 332.

5. It shall be unlawful for any person to pursue or carry on the business or avocation of an auctioneer or crier of sales in said county, without first taking out a license therefor, as provided in the following section.

Ibid.

6. Any person desiring to pursue or carry on said business or avocation of auctioneer, or crier of sales, may obtain a license so to do upon application to the clerk of the circuit court for said county; and said clerk is authorized to issue said license upon the payment by such person of the sum of ten dollars, to be immediately paid over by said clerk to the treasurer of the board of county school commissioners, for the use of the public schools of said county, after deducting therefrom the sum of fifty cents as a fee, to be retained by said clerk for issuing said license.

Ibid.

7. Any person who shall act, or attempt to act, as auctioneer or crier of sales, without first obtaining a license as provided in the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifteen dollars, to be recovered by indictment in the circuit court for said county, and such fine shall be paid over to the school board of said county, for the use of the public schools thereof.

BIRDS AND GAME.

1886, ch. 244.

8. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot, kill, or in any way trap or destroy, in Garrett county, any blue-bird, swallow, martin, catbird, sparrow, wren, whippoorwill, or any other insectivorous bird, at any season of the year, under the penalty of two dollars fine for each bird so taken, killed or destroyed.
