

1878, ch. 108.

24. The commissioners shall have full power to make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State, as from time to time they may deem necessary and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants; for the prevention and removal of nuisances; preservation of health and suppression of vice and immorality within the limits of said town; and they shall have power to lay an equal tax upon the property within the said limits, to such an amount as may be deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes aforesaid, which tax shall be collected and paid to the president and commissioners by the collector appointed by them, who shall have the same power to distrain therefor as the collector of public county taxes has to distrain for county taxes; and they shall fix the term of office, amount of bond and compensation of such collector.

Ibid.

25. They shall have full power to appoint, annually, a bailiff, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town; and for this purpose he is invested with the same power and authority that constables have under the laws of this State.

Ibid.

26. Said corporation shall not issue any device, certificate, or evidence of debt to be used as currency.

BRIDGE OVER CASTLEMAN'S RIVER.

1888, ch. 525.

27. The county commissioners are authorized and empowered to build a bridge over Castleman's river, in said county, at a point where said river is crossed by the public road leading from Stanton's Mill, in said county, to Salesburg, Pennsylvania, if the said commissioners shall deem it advisable to build such bridge; and if they deem it proper to build such bridge, they shall, in erecting it, proceed according to the provisions of the general law on that subject.
