

Maryland, all State taxes and money due the State which may have come into his hands during the week, to the credit of the comptroller of the State treasury and shall receive therefor from said bank a certificate of deposit, which he shall immediately forward to the comptroller, showing the amount placed to his credit; and said treasurer shall in like manner deposit all money in his hands at the end of each week, received for county taxes and dues, in such bank as he may see fit, to the credit of the county treasurer of Garrett county, which money shall be drawn only by the treasurer making such deposit, and only for claims which may have been levied or ordered paid by the county commissioners.

50. It shall be the duty of the treasurer, as soon as the annual tax levy shall have been made, to give notice thereof in one newspaper published in said county, and by handbills posted in each district of said county, and to prepare the tax bills of each taxpayer; and on application he shall forward the bill by mail or otherwise, or deliver the same to the persons or corporate institutions to whom the property included in such bill is assessed.

Ibid.

51. The said treasurer shall, during the first week in December of each and every year, publish in one newspaper published in said county, and by handbills posted in three of the most public places in each election district in said county, a list of all delinquent taxpayers for the current year, which list shall contain the names of said delinquents, the amount of assessment of each and the taxes due by each, with a notice appended thereto that the payment of said taxes will be enforced by advertisement and sale unless the same are paid by the first day of January then next following.

Ibid.

52. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to enforce the payment of all taxes remaining unpaid on the first day of January in the year succeeding that in which the same shall have been levied; provided, the notice required by the preceding sections shall have been given. If the taxes be due and owing upon real property, or upon real and personal property, the treasurer shall be author-
