

inquest, shall include such sum for the physician as the said coroner or justice and jurors shall deem just, not less than ten dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, which sum, together with the other expenses of the inquest, shall be paid by the county, and which may be decreased or increased, not beyond the limitations herein expressed, by the county commissioners, so as to fully compensate said physician for his services.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

1876, ch. 266.

112. There shall be five county commissioners for Anne Arundel county, who shall be required to meet in the office of the board of county commissioners, in the city of Annapolis, on the first Tuesday in each month, and as much oftener as the public interest may require, and shall continue in session at least two days during each session of the circuit court, and one week at their meeting in January, for the purpose of making transfers.

1876, ch. 168.

113. The commissioners shall receive four dollars per day each for every day they shall necessarily attend to the duties of their office; and five cents per mile for each mile each way they may have to travel to their place of meeting.

1874, ch. 485.

114. They shall be exempt from serving as jurors in any of the courts of said county, and it shall not be lawful for the sheriff to summon them as such.

Ibid.

115. They shall appoint a clerk, who shall hold his office for two years from the date of his appointment, and until the qualification of his successor. He shall be removable at the pleasure of the county commissioners, and shall receive such salary as they may determine.

Ibid.

116. He shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, execute a bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the county commissioners, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the duties of his office, and the said bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for said county.
