

they are elected, any of the commissioners shall die, resign, remove from the town, or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill the vacancy, on ten days' notice thereof being given by the commissioners, shall be held, at which all persons qualified as specified in section 113, shall be entitled to vote.

1878, ch. 108.

117. They shall have power to appoint a clerk and assign him his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper, and all ordinances passed by them shall be entered by their clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places of the town, that they may be generally made known.

1884, ch. 97.

118. All fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of said corporation, shall be recoverable as small debts are recovered, before any justice of the peace, who shall issue his civil writ against the defendant, and thereafter proceed as in civil cases; or he shall issue his warrant, as in criminal cases, against the defendant, and shall commit the said defendant, if found guilty, to the town lock-up, in default of the payment of his fine and costs, until said fine and costs are paid, not to exceed ten days; but the said town commissioners may at any time remit the said fine and costs, if they shall see proper to do so.

Ibid.

119. They shall have full power to make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience, improvement and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants; for the prevention or removal of nuisances; preservation of health and suppression of vice or immorality within the limits of said town; and shall have power to levy an equal tax on the property within the said limits, to such an amount as may from time to time be deemed necessary to accomplish said purposes, which tax shall be collected and paid to the president and commissioners by