

penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 136 shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1886, ch. 241.

139. It shall not be lawful for any person, house, corporation, company or association, to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, or alcoholic liquors or alcoholic bitters, directly or indirectly, at any place within the limits of Garrett county.

Ibid.

140. If any person, house, company, association or body politic shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, within the limits of said county, he, they or it, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, or instead of such fine, be imprisoned in the county jail for sixty days, or until discharged by due process of law, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Ibid.

141. Nothing contained in the two preceding sections shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors for medicinal purposes by a pharmacist and druggist, who shall or may obtain a license under the license laws of this State, for the prosecution of the business of pharmacy, and upon a written bona fide prescription of a regular practising physician, whose name shall be signed thereto; and all such prescriptions shall be filed and kept by such pharmacist and druggist; and no prescription shall serve for more than one purchase; but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, and such liquor is deemed by said physician necessary as a medicine; any physician who shall make or sign any prescription for liquor, except as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of said sections, and on conviction
