

1878, ch. 108.

168. The limits of said town shall begin at a stone marked eight hundred and forty-one, said stone being the beginning of military lot number eight hundred and forty-one, and running thence north sixty-seven degrees, west one hundred perches, south twenty-three degrees, west two hundred perches, south sixty-seven degrees, east ten perches, to the summit of the Hoop-pole ridge; thence with the summit of said ridge south sixty-seven degrees, east one hundred perches, north twenty-three degrees, east one hundred and seventeen perches, thence to the place of beginning; the commissioners of the town may make such alterations in the corporate limits as they may deem proper, and cause the same to be surveyed and the boundaries thereof to be established, and a record thereof to be filed amongst the records of the corporation.

Ibid.

169. The male citizens of the town of Oakland, of twenty-one years of age and upwards, who have resided therein for six months next preceding thereto, shall elect by ballot, on the third Monday in April in every second year, accounting from the year eighteen hundred and eighty six, one person residing in said town to be mayor of said town, and to serve as such for the term of two years, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified; and the citizens aforesaid shall also elect on said third Monday in April in every year, three persons to be members of the council of said town, and who shall have resided in said town for at least one year prior to said election; and said members shall serve for the term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified; and the six persons thus elected shall constitute the council for the ensuing year; and said members of the council shall receive the sum of one dollar for each day they may be in session or attending to their public duties; provided, the entire sum paid to a member in any one year shall not exceed twenty-four dollars.

1884, ch. 126.

170. The corporate authorities of said town, at their regular meeting in the month of March, shall appoint, for the purpose of holding said election, three judges of election and two clerks; and