

Second street in said town of Oakland, between the hours of seven A. M. and nine P. M. daily, except Sunday.

ORPHANS' COURT.

1884, ch. 314.

196. The judges of the orphans' court for Garrett county shall be allowed a per diem of three dollars and fifty cents, and mileage at the rate of eight cents per mile each way for going to and returning from each meeting; but such mileage shall be allowed but once during a session.

1878, ch. 108.

197. The register of wills in said county, at each meeting of the court, shall make a memorandum on the minutes of the court of the number of miles traveled by each judge.

Ibid

198. The county commissioners shall annually levy a sufficient sum to enable the treasurer to pay the per diem and mileage of judges of the orphans' court upon the passage of their accounts.

ROADS.

1878, ch. 158.

199. So much of the United States road, commonly known as the National turnpike, as passes through Garrett county, is transferred to and placed under the custody, care and control of the county commissioners, who are authorized and required to assume the custody and control thereof.

1880, ch. 261.

200. They shall annually appoint, at their meeting in January, one or more road supervisors for each election district of said county, as in their judgment may be necessary.

1888, ch. 548.

201. The repairs and improvement and supervision of the public county road, known as the Legislative road, leading from the west end of the covered bridge over Youghiogheny river at