

Friendsville, in Garrett county, along the west side of said Youghiogheny river to Selbysport as now traveled, and thence with said county road by Guard's store to the Pennsylvania line, are placed under the charge and care of Joshua M. Friend and George Dunham.

1888, ch 548.

202. The county commissioners are authorized and required, at the time of making the annual levy, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, to levy the sum of eight hundred dollars in the hands of said superintendents, provided for by this subtitle of this article, for the repair of said road hereinbefore designated, and to be expended equally by said superintendents upon said road.

Ibid.

203. Said superintendents shall, before entering upon their duties, execute a bond in the same manner that road supervisors in Garrett county are required to bond.

Ibid.

204. George Dunham shall have charge of that part of said road which passes through lands supposed to be owned by George H. Williams; Joshua M. Friend shall have charge of the remainder of said road, and each shall, on or before the first day of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, render a specific account to the county commissioners, of their expenditures upon said road, and shall return their vouchers for such expenditures; and said superintendents shall each be allowed as an item of such expense the sum of two dollars per day for their services whilst engaged upon said road.

Ibid.

205. Should either of said superintendents fail to qualify as required, or should either resign or die, his duties shall devolve upon the other; and should both fail to qualify, resign or die, the county commissioners shall appoint two superintendents to take their places with like powers and obligations.
