

1888, ch. 548.

206. All labor employed upon said road by said superintendents shall be paid at the rate allowed by road supervisors on other county roads in said county.

SCHOOLS.

1878, ch. 345.

207. The treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the comptroller, shall pay annually on the first Monday of July, to the board of school commissioners for Garrett county, the sum of twelve hundred dollars, to be applied to the public school fund of said county; said sum shall be applied by them to the support of the Grantsville and Oakland schools in equal amounts; and said Grantsville and Oakland schools shall be taken and considered as high schools, and open to pupils from any part of the county; provided, that whenever the board of school commissioners shall establish a high school, such as is provided for in article 77 of the public general laws, title "Public Education," then said twelve hundred dollars shall be applied to the maintenance of such high school.

1884, ch. 397.

208. The sum of one hundred dollars, on the warrant of the comptroller, shall be paid to the president of the board of trustees of the Baltimore Female College, on the first day of April in every year, in consideration of which the trustees shall give tuition, with the use of text-books, without charge, to one pupil from Garrett county, selected by the orphans' court of said county, as in other counties of the State.

1884, ch. 168.

209. The board of county school commissioners of Garrett county shall not expend for school purposes, or for any other purpose, a greater sum of money in any one year than shall have been levied by the county commissioners for the same year, in addition to the sum annually received by the board of county school commissioners from the treasurer of the State; and they are absolutely prohibited from borrowing from any source whatever, or for any purpose, any sum of money which shall be in excess of the moneys which they shall be entitled to receive from
