

of him by law, and shall receive such compensation as the board of county school commissioners shall direct, not to exceed the sum of eight hundred dollars in any year.

SHEEP.

1878, ch. 108.

214. It shall be lawful to kill any dog seen running sheep in Garrett county; and owners of dogs known to worry sheep shall be liable for all sheep killed or injured by them, if after notice of such vicious propensity they fail to kill said dogs; and any person seeing such dogs running at large may lawfully kill the same.

SHERIFF.

1884, ch. 272. 1888, ch. 6.

215. The sheriff of Garrett county shall be allowed for conveying persons under sentence from said county to any State institution the actual and necessary traveling expenses of said persons, and the actual and necessary traveling expenses of himself, to and from such institution, and also ten dollars a day as compensation for such service, but said sheriff shall not be allowed more than two days' compensation for any one trip to such institution. Said expenses and compensation shall be levied and paid as other county charges are paid.

STATE'S ATTORNEY.

1888, ch. 471.

216. The State's attorney shall not receive any appearance fee in cases of recognizance, except when the same are traversed; nor shall said State's attorney receive any fee or compensation in any case until the same has been finally disposed of by judgment or otherwise.

Ibid.

217. He shall receive the sum of fifteen dollars in each and every case which he shall prosecute for the State by indictment or presentment and trial, either before the court or a jury; and said sum shall be in addition to the appearance fee as now fixed by law.