

to show that they are Canada thistles; such fine to be recovered before any justice of the peace, as other small fines are now recovered, and the proceeds of such fines to be paid to the county commissioners.

1892, ch. 78.

227. No road supervisor in said county shall permit any such Canada thistle to grow upon any land appurtenant to any public road in said county, adjoining or being part of any road under his charge; and if any such supervisor shall permit the same, he shall be liable to the fine provided in the preceding section, to be recovered for the use of said county as provided in the preceding section.

WILD ANIMALS.

1878, ch. 108.

228. Any citizen of this State who shall kill or destroy any wolf, panther, wild cat or fox, within the limits of Garrett county, shall be entitled to the following allowance, viz: for every wolf scalp, the sum of twenty dollars; for every panther scalp, the sum of twenty dollars; for every wild cat scalp, the sum of two dollars; and for every fox scalp, the sum of one dollar.

1884, ch. 86.

229. To obtain such allowance it shall be necessary for the person killing such animal to produce the head, skin or scalp of the same before some justice of the peace for said county, and at the same time make oath that the animal was taken and killed within the limits of Garrett county, within twenty-five days before the production of the head, skin or scalp before the justice, and said justice shall thereupon give the person producing the same a certificate that such head, skin or scalp was produced before him, wherein he shall set forth the above-mentioned oath; and it shall also be the duty of the justice to mark any such head, skin or scalp by cutting holes through the ear, to prevent any second allowance for the same.

1878, ch. 108.

230. Upon the production of such certificate, the county commissioners shall levy upon the assessable property of the county
