

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 12, sec. 8.

3. Any one commissioner may direct the admission of any person to said almshouse.

Ibid. sec. 4.

4. They shall annually, in the month of March, appoint a fit person to be overseer of the poor, who shall have charge and custody of the lands, goods and chattels purchased for the use of the poor of the county, and shall take care of said poor, and perform all the duties which may be required of him in relation to them, and the property appropriated to their use.

Ibid. sec. 5.

5. Before acting as such he shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of two thousand dollars, with security approved by the county commissioners, and with condition that he shall well and faithfully perform the duties of overseer of the poor of said county, and shall well and faithfully account for all property, money, goods and chattels, which may come to his hands or possession, as such overseer.

Ibid. sec. 6.

6. They may remove such overseer at pleasure, and appoint another in his place.

1872, ch. 121.

7. They shall allow him such annual compensation for his services as they may think proper, not exceeding three hundred dollars per annum, exclusive of the board of himself and family.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 12, sec. 8.

8. They, or the overseer under their direction, shall keep an account of all articles sold and purchased by them or him on their account, stating therein the articles sold and the price received, the articles purchased, the price paid or to be paid, and from whom purchased, and the same shall be verified by the oath of the overseer, and a copy thereof shall be set up at the place of holding elections in each election district of the county.
