

between the first day of January and the tenth day of June in either of said counties; nor any rail birds, reed birds or pheasants between the first day of February and the fifth day of September in each year in Cecil county; nor any rail birds or pheasants between the first day of February and the first day of September in each year in Harford county; and the possession of any of the birds or game mentioned in this section during the prohibited periods shall be deemed prima facie evidence against such persons of a violation of this section, except when it may appear that such birds or game are for breeding purposes.

43. Any person violating the provisions of the preceding section, on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each partridge, rabbit, woodcock, rail bird or pheasant, shot or taken, or exposed for sale; and on failure to pay said fine shall be lodged in the county jail for a term of not less than ten nor more than thirty days.

Ibid.

44. Any person found trespassing with dog or gun upon any private property in said county, shall be liable to be arrested by any constable of said county, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars; and on failure to pay said fine, shall be confined in the jail of said county for a term of not less than five nor more than ten days.

Ibid.

45. Any party against whom any justice of the peace shall render a judgment under the provisions of the three preceding sections, may at any time within twenty days from the rendition thereof, appeal from such judgment to the circuit court for the county.

Ibid.

46. The fines which may be collected under the provisions of sections 42, 43 and 44, shall be paid by the justices of the peace to the county commissioners, to be by them placed to the credit of the school fund of the county.
