

to build the same as hereinbefore provided, to divide the amount so contributed or subscribed into as many equal parts as they may deem proper, not exceeding four, and to issue certificates of indebtedness therefor; that is to say, for one of said parts payable in one year, for another of said parts payable in two years, for another of said parts payable in three years, for another of said parts payable in four years; or said certificates shall be payable at as many annual intervals as said amount is divided into parts, said certificates to bear interest, not exceeding five per cent. interest per annum, until their maturity, but not afterwards; and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of the county where such certificates have been issued, and they are directed, to levy upon the assessable property of said county for the payment of the same at their maturity in the annual levy next preceding such maturity.

CIRCUIT COURT.

1865, ch. 93.

52. There shall be four terms of the circuit court for Harford county in each year, commencing, respectively, on the second Monday in February, the second Monday in May, the second Monday of September, and the second Monday in November.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 12, sec. 24.

53. Juries shall be summoned to each of said terms of the court, except the September term.

CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT.

1878, ch. 103.

54. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court to enter in a general index, in the name of both plaintiff and defendant, all judgments and decrees on the day on which said judgments are rendered or decrees passed, and also to enter the same when satisfied; for which services he shall be allowed the sum of fifty cents, to be paid by the parties to the suit, respectively, as other costs are now paid.