

at least five days and not more than ten days before the day of sale ; provided, that if the owners of said animals or any of them shall, before the said sale, pay to the said constable one dollar for taking up each of the said animals owned by them, and fifty cents for putting up and giving each of the notices of said sale, and the expenses incurred by him for keeping and feeding said animals, the said constable shall then deliver the said animals to the owner or his agent.

1888, ch. 109.

80. In case of a sale under the provisions of the preceding section, the money arising from said sale shall be applied first to the payment to the constable making such seizure and sale, one dollar for taking and impounding each of the animals seized by him, and fifty cents for giving and setting up each of the notices of sale and the expenses incurred by him in keeping and feeding the animals sold, and the poundage fees allowed by law to constables making sale of property under writs of feri facias, and the balance, if any, to the owner of the animals sold.

Ibid.

81. In case any constable in Harford county shall fail to perform the duty imposed on him by section 79, he shall be fined two dollars for each offence, to be recovered by indictment in the circuit court for Harford county, and to be payable to the county commissioners of said county, and applied by them towards repairing the public roads in the said village of Darlington, or the roads within one mile of the town hall, in said village.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 12, sec. 36.

82. Harford county is divided into six election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and elections for all public offices shall be held in each of said districts at the places therein established by law for that purpose.

1886, ch. 84.

83. The county commissioners are authorized to make such changes of the dividing lines between the election districts of said county as in their judgment the public interest may require.
