

1884, ch. 20.

84. The first election district is divided into two election precincts, and Abingdon and Magnolia shall respectively be the places where the elections shall be held in said precincts.

1876, ch. 154.

85. The county commissioners are authorized to make such divisions of any election district or districts in said county, into election precincts, as in their judgment the public interest may require, and to designate the places of holding elections therein and the number by which each of said precincts shall be known.

Ibid.

86. It shall be the duty of the officer of registration in each election district, so changed or so divided into precincts, when notified by the county commissioners of such change or such division into precincts of any such district prior to the next election, to register all the voters in such district, in the same mode and manner as the voters in other districts are required to be registered by article 33 of the code of public general laws, title "Elections," sub-title "Registration;" and he shall prepare separate lists of voters according to the sub-divisions of such districts into precincts, designating the election precincts of the districts in which the voters are or shall be respectively entitled to vote, and shall deliver one copy of the lists of voters for each of said precincts to the judges of election thereof.

Ibid.

87. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners to appoint three persons for each of said precincts, residents thereof, to act as judges of elections for said precincts, and who shall perform the duties of their office in the manner required by said article 33 of the Code of public general laws, title "Elections;" and such judges shall make their returns in the same manner as if the said precincts were districts, and in accordance with the laws applicable to judges of elections for districts; and they shall receive the same compensation as other judges of election in said county.
