

through said part, by stock belonging to the other joint owner of the fence; and if he shall kill, maim or otherwise injure such stock, he shall, upon conviction, pay to the owner thereof the full value of such stock, with costs of suit.

1864, ch. 204.

97. In all other cases of trespass by stock, the party trespassed upon shall be entitled to recover from the owner of the stock trespassing, the amount of damages done by such trespass, as other debts are now recovered; but if the party trespassed upon shall kill, maim or otherwise wilfully injure the stock trespassing, he shall forfeit his right to recover; but in case of prosecution for such killing or maiming, he shall be entitled to prove the amount of damage done by such stock in mitigation of damages for the killing or maiming.

Ibid.

98. Each freeholder acting under the provisions of this subtitle of this article, shall be entitled to two dollars per day for each day he shall be so employed, one-half of which shall be paid by each party interested.

FERTILIZERS.

1862, ch. 451.

99. Any person, company or corporation, who shall offer, sell or expose for sale, in Harford county, any commercial fertilizer or bone dust, the price of which exceeds ten dollars a ton, shall affix to every package, in a conspicuous place on the outside thereof, a plainly-marked certificate, stating the number of net pounds in the package sold or offered for sale; the name or trade-mark under which the article is sold; the name of the manufacturer and the place of manufacture, and a chemical analysis stating the percentage of nitrogen, or its equivalent in ammonia in an available form of potash, soluble in water, and of phosphoric acid in an available form, (soluble or reverted,) as well as the total phosphoric acid.

Ibid.

100. Before any commercial fertilizer or bone dust can be sold, or offered for sale, the manufacturer, importer or party who
