

1884, ch. 154.

134. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish with pound nets in any part of the waters mentioned in section 132, distant over two hundred and fifty yards from the shore line of said water as marked by ordinary high water.

Ibid.

135. It shall be unlawful for any non-resident of this State to fish, except with hook and line, in any of the waters mentioned in section 132, unless such non-resident shall own real estate in said county, or be a renter of lands bordering upon said waters.

Ibid.

136. Any person violating any of the provisions of the four preceding sections shall forfeit the nets therein described, and all appurtenances thereto belonging, together with the boats and materials used in fishing the same; and shall also, for each offence, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, or upon indictment in the circuit court for said county, pay a fine not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

HAVRE DE GRACE.

1882, ch. 220.

137. The town of Havre de Grace is created a city by the name of the city of Havre de Grace, and the inhabitants thereof shall constitute a body politic and corporate, under the name of "The Mayor and City Council of Havre de Grace," and as such shall have succession, and by such name may sue and be sued, may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, and with the assent of a majority of the legal voters of said city, first had and obtained at a general or special election, held after twenty days' public notice, may dispose of any real estate for the benefit of said city.

1878, ch. 440.
