

1878, ch. 184.

153. If any person shall hunt, take, kill or destroy in any manner terrapins or terrapin eggs from the first day of May to the fifteenth day of October in any year, contrary to the provisions of the preceding section, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for said county shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars, one-half thereof to the informer and the other half to the school fund for Anne Arundel county.

Ibid.

154. The possession by any person of any terrapins or terrapin eggs during said period shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of section 152 by said person.

1884, ch. 403.

155. It shall not be lawful for any person to place in the waters of the Severn river, in Anne Arundel county, at any point above Bulling's cove on the one side, and Poplar Spring on the other side of said river, or in any of the creeks or coves of said river above said points, any weir or weirs, net or nets, or any other contrivance for catching fish, between the first day of February and the first day of April. Any person offending against the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said county be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, one-third to go to the informer, one-third to the constable making the arrest, and one-third to the treasurer of the county school commissioners, for school purposes. Nothing in this section to apply to the hauling of seines.

1878, ch. 363. 1884, ch. 503.

156. It shall not be lawful for any person, except bona fide residents of Anne Arundel, St. Mary's, Charles, Calvert and Prince George's counties, to haul in the waters of the Patuxent river, between Sheridan's point and point Patience, any seine of greater length than sixty fathoms, at any time between the first day of June and the first day of October following, upon penalty of a fine of not less than twenty or more than fifty dollars, one-half thereof to be paid to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners.
