

1868, ch. 202.

157. All weirs and hedges in the Patuxent river above Hill's bridge and below the public wharf at the town of Queen Anne are declared nuisances, and may be abated as such by any person.

Ibid.

158. If any person shall place or make any weir or hedge in the said Patuxent river, contrary to the provisions of the preceding section, he shall forfeit the sum of twenty-five dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace either of Anne Arundel county or Prince George's county, one-half to the informer or person who may sue for the same and the other half to be paid to the justice, and by him paid annually to the county commissioners of the county.

Ibid.

159. If any person shall fish in any such weir or hedge he shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of fifteen dollars, to be recovered and applied as directed in the preceding section.

FRIENDSHIP.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 2, sec. 100.

160. No swine or geese shall go at large in the village of Friendship, in Anne Arundel county, within the following limits: beginning at the southwest corner of Alexander Hill's lots, running east with Thomas Whittington's line to the corner of Lewis Sutton's land, and with the said Lewis Sutton's line to the gate northward on the road leading to Herring bay, (belonging to Joseph G. Harrison's land); thence a northwest course to a large oak, the corner of Samuel Wood's lot; thence west, crossing the road running northward by the north side of William P. Hardesty's new dwelling-house, to the east line of Captain Thomas T. Simmons'; thence south, with the said line crossing the west road with the line on that side of Thomas Whittington's land to the beginning.

Ibid. sec. 101.

161. Any person may impound any swine or geese found going at large in the said limits belonging to any of the inhabitants of said village; and the owner of such swine or geese shall,
