

1888, ch. 257.

187. The county commissioners shall be relieved from the care of the roads, streets and alleys within the corporate limits of the city of Havre de Grace, and the care of the same shall be transferred to the mayor and city council of Havre de Grace; and in consideration of said transfer, all the property within the corporate limits of said city shall hereafter be exempt from taxation for public district or county road purposes, outside of said corporate limits.

1888, ch. 292.

188. No person in Havre de Grace shall obtain a license for the sale or barter of spirituous or fermented liquors in any quantities whatever, except such as shall be qualified as hereinafter provided, and be a regular hotel keeper; and any person who may keep a house for the reception of guests, or of permanent or transient boarders, containing at least three chambers more than are needed for his family purposes, and are used for the reception of guests or boarders, containing therein for use at all times at least four good beds, with sufficient covering therefor, and having a stable sufficient for the accommodation of six or more horses, shall be deemed a hotel keeper within the meaning of sections 188-214 of this sub-title of this article.

Ibid.

189. Any person desiring to take out a license under said sections of this sub-title of this article, shall file with the clerk of the circuit court for said county a petition in writing, signed by himself and at least five freeholders, who have been such for the period of one year prior to the time of so signing, and resident within the corporate limits of said city; and the said petition shall certify that the said applicant is a proper person to be licensed, and pray that license may be granted to such applicant; and said person applying for license shall also file with the said clerk a bond, duly executed to the State of Maryland, with at least two sureties, approved by the said clerk, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the payment of any or all fines, penalties and costs to which the person obtaining such license may become liable by reason of the violation of any of the provisions of said sections of this sub-title of this article; and each surety on
